From Nanaimo:

Travel north on Highway 19 for 43 km (26 miles), Take Exit 60 onto Highway 4 (also known as the Pacific Rim Highway) heading west for 156 km (97 miles). You will drive through spectacular Cathedral Grove, historic Port Alberni (drive straight downhill and turn right at the junction), and on the winding road around Sproat and Kennedy Lakes. You will also drive through scenic Sutton Pass, at an altitude of 175 meters) - where we especially recommend heeding to the speed limit. Travel westward until you come to the junction between Tofino and Ucluelet.

Turn right at the Tofino/Ucluelet junction and drive north towards Tofino for 28 km (17 miles) continue right through the Pacific Rim National Park Reserve toward Tofino. Drive straight through Tofino without turning anywhere and the Duffin Cove Resort is located at 215 Campbell St., the very end of the road at the very tip of the peninsula. (Any further and you would be in the ocean.)

From Comox Airport:

Leaving the Comox Airport you will turn right at the airport entrance onto Knight Road. Turn right at the intersection onto Military Row (drive approximately 2 kms). At the next stop sign, turn left onto Ryan Road. You will continue on Ryan Road (past Home Depot and down the hill), watching for signs indicating Nanaimo. Turn left just past the Superstore complex following the road to the 17th St Bridge, where you will turn right. While on the bridge, get into the left hand turning lanes. Turn left onto Cliffe Avenue, and continue to follow signage that will direct you to turn right onto the 29th St connector. After turning right onto the connector, continue until you see signs that direct you to Highway 19 southbound toward Nanaimo. Once on Highway # 19 South, watch for signs pointing you to Highway # 4 West toward Port Alberni/Pacific Rim National Park Reserve/Tofino, and exit in this direction.

Once on Highway 4, you will drive through spectacular Cathedral Grove, historic Port Alberni (drive straight downhill and turn right at the junction), and around Sproat and Kennedy Lakes.
